

BUILDING SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES

PANEL + Q&A + NETWORKING

Friday, October 14, 2016

6:00-8:00 PM

LMHQ

150 Broadway, 20th Fl
New York, NY 10038

FREE TICKETS:
bard.edu/mba

Join us for a panel discussion with local government, nonprofit, and community leaders to discuss how New York organizations are incorporating sustainability principles into community development. How can a top-down approach to sustainable living create a higher quality of life with more economic and environmental security?

FEATURED PANELISTS:

LUCILLE SONGHAI

Community Affairs Director, Manhattan Borough President's Office

JOHN HENRY

Chairman, Cofound Harlem

JAIME STEIN

Academic Coordinator + Faculty, MS in Sustainable Environmental Systems, Pratt Institute

Bard MBA
IN SUSTAINABILITY
IN THE HEART OF NYC

LEAD THE CHANGE.

SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS
SERIES