

GreenHomeNYC INVITES YOU TO

Monthly Forum: The Green Catwalk

Join us for our annual kick-start to the New Year! Don't miss our popular Green Catwalk, featuring a multitude of hot topics for 2017. Join us to hear current updates and new "green" plans for the year from a variety of key players and organizations in NYC. Reserve your seat now!

Our speakers will include:

- Duncan Prah RA, AIA - Sr. Research Architect, speaking on building the first LEED Platinum Home in Saudi Arabia
- Tom Sahagian - Independent Energy-Efficiency Consultant, speaking on how to achieve 80x50 and how you can help with basic energy-efficiency research
- Matthew Caruso - Sustainable South Bronx, speaking on the energy efficiency program they run through NYSERDA
- Richard Gerbe - CEO at HighMark, speaking on how energy efficiency supports renewable energy, in relation to demand management for buildings in NYC.
- Daniel Paschell - Analyst at Institute for Transportation and Development Policy, speaking on ways to transform transport culture and prioritize people and the environment instead of the movement of cars.
- Bill Oberkehr - NY State Solar Ombudsman, speaking on the Shared Solar NYC Program.
- Gabe Landes - Program Manager for Sustainable CUNY, speaking on the Solarize NYC Program

RSVP HERE!

Date: Wednesday, January 18, 2017

Time: 6:30-8:00pm

Location: Fujitsu General America, 1450 Broadway, 42nd Floor New York, NY