

HUNTER LOVINS: CREATING A FINER FUTURE

Monday, February 20, 2017
7:00 PM — 8:30 PM
Soho REI, 303 Lafayette St.

Sustainability pioneer Hunter Lovins will discuss her new book focused on how we can create a “Finer Future” by shepherding change through large companies and by driving community economic development. The evening will be interactive, drawing from audience concerns and expertise. A Professor of Sustainable Management at Bard MBA, Lovins is President of Natural Capitalism Solutions.
