

National Wildlife Federation and Daymond John
LIGHT UP
The Empire State Building
FOR
National Pollinator Week

8:31 PM, JUNE 22, 2017

On June 22, 2017 Daymond John, beekeeper and co-host of the TV show, Shark Tank, will join the National Wildlife Federation in lighting the Empire State Building black and yellow to highlight the importance of pollinators in the Big Apple and across the country for National Pollinator Week (June 19-25)!

So wherever you are at 8:31 pm on June 22, look to the NYC skyline and give thanks to our bees, butterflies, bats, and birds!

Take the pledge to help pollinators in New York City. Go to this link to find out how:
