

THE HUMAN IMPACTS INSTITUTE AND THE GERMAN CONSULATE GENERAL IN NYC INVITE YOU TO

CREATING CLIMATE COMMUNITY THROUGH CHAOS

Conversation and live performance exploring how to work together in innovative ways to take climate action.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6 • 6PM
BROOKLYN PUBLIC LIBRARY
240 DIVISION AVENUE, BROOKLYN

RSVP: HTTPS://BIT.LY/2KFLDEC

WITH LIVE PERFORMANCES FROM

*Kwame Opoku-duku (poetry), Joshua Dumas
(music), and Arctic Cycle (theatre)*

AND CONVERSATION WITH

Mer Block, ESG Analyst and Vice President,
Rockefeller Capital Management

Cindy Chung, Co-Chair NYC, Zero Hour

Peter Derby, Creative Director

Margaret Morton, Director of Program on Creativity and Free Expression, Ford Foundation (invited)

Andrew Revkin, Strategic Adviser for Environmental and Science Journalism, National Geographic Society (invited)

Courtney St John, Director of Energy Desk, Climate Nexus

This program would not be possible without the support of:

Consulate General
of the Federal Republic of Germany
New York